Comfortable Living With Solar Benefits

This practical home offers comfort, efficiency and everyday ease. Solar power and solar hot water help reduce running costs, while tinted west-facing windows assist with temperature control. The large open living and dining area is air-conditioned, as is the main bedroom. The home offers a solid foundation and the opportunity to update and personalise to suit your style. An enclosed garage, side gate access and a concreted entertaining area complete the picture.

- Solar power and hot water
- Air-con living and main bed
- Large open living/dining
